

Election Verification Network Conference
March 18-20, 2024
The Constance Milstein and Family Global Academic Center
New York University
Washington, DC

“Bridging Rough Waters”

Monday March 18

- 5:00 pm            Opening Reception
                      Eckstine Ballroom, Viceroy Hotel
- 6:00 pm            Welcome and Introductions
                      Josh Benaloh, Microsoft Research and Chair, EVN Coordinating Committee
- Remarks
                      Virginia Kase Solomon, Common Cause, President and CEO
                      Kim Wyman, Bipartisan Policy Center, former Secretary of State, Washington;
                      Recipient of the 2020 EVN Public Service Award for Improved Elections
- 8:00 pm            Dinner on your own

Tuesday, March 19

- 8:00 am            Breakfast/Check-in
                      Catherine B. Reynolds Foundation Lobby
                      Pearlstein Family Grand Foyer
- 8:45 am            Welcome & Introductions
                      Abramson Family Auditorium
                      Josh Benaloh, Microsoft Research, Chair, EVN Coordinating Committee
                      Aquene Freechild, Public Citizen, Conference Co-Chair
                      Eddie Perez, OSET Institute, Conference Co-Chair
- 9:00 am            A Report from Federal Partners: The Current Environment and New Challenges
                      Moderator: Dana DeBeauvoir, OSET Institute, former County Clerk (ret.) Travis County, Texas
                      Panelists: Geoffrey Hale, CISA; Commissioner Thomas Hicks, U.S. Election Assistance
                      Commission; Aaron Jennen, U.S. Dept. of Justice
                      How do the Election Assistance Commission (EAC), the Department of Justice (DOJ), and the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA) assess the current environment for elections, and how are they preparing and improving readiness? What are their current priorities, and what are new challenges that make 2024 different from previous years?

10:15 am	Combatting Mis- and Disinformation about Elections: How Can Big Tech and Election Officials Work Together More Effectively? Moderator: Miles Parks, Elections &amp; Voting Reporter, NPR Panelists: Roberta Braga, Digital Democracy Institute of the Americas; Justin Hendrix, Tech Policy Press; Kim Wyman, Bipartisan Policy Center A dialogue between social media/tech policy experts and election experts, to help bridge the divide and collaborate to address the serious communication challenges we face. How can online content technologists educate the elections community about the spread of viral disinformation and potential rapid responses – and, conversely, what can election specialists teach them?
11:15 am	Break Catherine B. Reynolds Foundation Lobby Pearlstein Family Grand Foyer (overflow)
11:30 am	Keynote Address Abramson Family Auditorium David Folkenflik, National Media Correspondent, NPR
12:30 pm	Annual EVN Awards Ceremony John Marion, Common Cause, Rhode Island
1:15 pm	Verified Voting Awards Luncheon Catherine B. Reynolds Foundation Lobby Pearlstein Family Grand Foyer (overflow)
2:15 pm	Re-convene Abramson Family Auditorium
2:30 pm	Keynote Address The Honorable Michael Adams, Secretary of State, Commonwealth of Kentucky
3:00 pm	Break Catherine B. Reynolds Foundation Lobby Pearlstein Family Grand Foyer (overflow)

3:15 pm                   Digital Democracy for All: Accessibility and Security in Voting
Abramson Family Auditorium
Moderator: Jalisa Giles, Public Citizen
Panelists: Michelle Bishop, National Disabilities Rights Network; Rafael Bonifaz, Derechos Digitales; Braden Crimmins, University of Michigan; Susannah Goodman, Common Cause; David M. Scanlon, Secretary of State, New Hampshire
A discussion on innovative approaches to enhance voter access without resorting to internet voting. This panel aims to provide actionable takeaways for promoting participation among voters with disabilities through secure, accessible, and traditional voting methods.

4:30 pm                   Election Verification: Evolving Innovations and Challenges
Panelists: Neal McBurnett, Auditing Expert; Dwight Shellman, State Election Official; Brad Sturt, University of Illinois; Vanessa Teague, Australian National University
With public confidence in the legitimacy of election outcomes under serious pressure in some quarters, transparency and verification of results is more important than ever. How do these efforts continue to evolve, and what are new challenges that have been identified? Our panelists have experience in real-world voting operations, the challenges posed by open records laws and privacy, and the need for new auditing techniques as elections continue to change.

Wednesday, March 20

8:00 am                   Breakfast/Check-in
Catherine B. Reynolds Foundation Lobby
Pearlstein Family Grand Foyer (overflow)

8:30 am                   Welcome & Introductions
Abramson Family Auditorium
Josh Benaloh, Microsoft Research, Chair, EVN Coordinating Committee
Aquene Freechild, Public Citizen, Conference Co-Chair
Eddie Perez, OSET Institute, Conference Co-Chair

8:40 am                   Appearance Via Video
U.S. Senator Amy Klobuchar, D-MN
Remarks
Stephen Spaulding, Chief of Staff, U.S. Senator Amy Klobuchar

9:15 am                   Protecting and Supporting Election Officials
Abramson Family Auditorium
Moderator: Aquene Freechild, Public Citizen
Panelists: Judd Choate, Election Director, State of Colorado; Aghogho Edevbie, Deputy Secretary of State, Michigan; Marybeth Kuznik, Fayette County, Pennsylvania; Sam Liebert, All Voting is Local, Wisconsin
Pernicious intimidation and harassment of local and state election officials is causing a mass exodus from the field at a critical juncture. We'll discuss lessons learned from state and county election officials, and also successful legislative efforts to protect and retain experienced election officials.

10:15 am	Break Catherine B. Reynolds Foundation Lobby Pearlstein Family Grand Foyer (overflow)
10:30 am	Getting the Message Out: Strategic Communications Moderator: Liz Lebron, Blue Nexus Group Panelists: Tara Buss, Research Collaborative; Genya Coulter, OSET Institute; Corrie Emerson, Verified Voting; Derek Tisler, Brennan Center for Justice How can election officials, journalists and other stakeholders cooperate to communicate strategically in a way that a) educates the public; b) lowers the temperature; and c) does not undermine confidence in elections? We'll explore how to make responsible and proactive disclosure of administrative errors and/or voting technology flaws without creating panic, and what messages work best to inform voters about challenges with voting tech and systems, without pushing them to disengage or distrust the process.
11:45 am	Voting Technology Roundup Participants: Josh Benaloh, Microsoft Research; Kevin Skoglund, Citizens for Better Elections; Chris Wlaschin, Election Systems & Software This session provides an update on recent newsworthy developments with voting technology, and how they might impact public confidence in elections. The session begins with the latest news about new voting systems, federal certification requirements, and some significant problems with deployed systems. Then, the session will turn to a one-on-one interview with the CISO of a prominent voting system vendor, to discuss these topics and the future of voting systems.
12:45 pm	Microsoft Research Sponsored Luncheon Catherine B. Reynolds Foundation Lobby Pearlstein Family Grand Foyer (overflow)
1:45 pm	Re-convene Abramson Family Auditorium
2:00 pm	AI's Impact on Elections: Ensuring Readiness Moderator: Eddie Perez, OSET Institute Panelists: Katie Harbath, Anchor Change/Duco; Tim Harper, Center for Democracy and Technology; Gowri Ramachandran, Brennan Center for Justice What might the impact of AI on elections be? While AI's ability to accelerate mis- and disinformation is much-talked-about, this panel will go deeper, to also assess how AI can impact the security of election infrastructure, systems and processes. How can Big Tech experts on AI and election officials learn from each other and support each other's needs?

3:15 pm

Minding The Store: Minimizing Risks Associated with Election Staff Turnover

Moderators: David Levine, Alliance for Securing Democracy at the George Marshall Fund; Kurt Sampsel, PEN America

Panelists: Karen Brinson-Bell, North Carolina State Board of Elections; Shauna Dozier, Clayton County Board of Elections & Registration; Amanda Gonzalez, Jefferson County Clerk & Records Office

A pragmatic panel, focused on risk reduction and best practices to avoid disruptions as well as efforts to combat insider threats.

4:15pm

Close and Toast- Emcee- TBD

Catherine B. Reynolds Foundation Lobby

This conference is sponsored in part by

BRENNAN
CENTER
FOR JUSTICE

the turnout

VerifiedVoting